1/ Haus by Hertex

New from Hertex comes Haus, a curated homeware collection chosen to make living in style, simple. The brand is turning 30 this year, making it a good time for Hertex to branch out into a new territory. The range is sophisticated and contemporary, suited for everyday, inspired living. It comprises tableware, occasional furniture, soft furnishings and rugs. Haus will be available at Hertex showrooms from 1 April.

IT FELT LIKE A NATURAL PROGRESSION FOR US TO EVOLVE FROM FABRICS INTO HOMEWARE CONSIDERING OUR EXPERIENCE & INFLUENCE

1. Olives Galore

Price: R600 per person
Date: 12 & 19 April 2017
Time: 10h00–16h00

Your time in the olive groves is followed by a walk through the garden as Linda Costa, doyenne of the olive industry in South Africa, explains how to grow, maintain and harvest olives. Then the man in charge of Babylonstoren's olive production, Klaas Stoffberg, takes you on a tour of the olive oil production plant.

2. Teas & Tisanes

PRICE: R600 per person
DATE: 17 May 2017
TIME: 10h00–16h00

The day starts with gathering herbs from the garden while snippets of wisdom are shared. Constance demonstrates how to make her grandmother's immune-boosting tea, and Gundula concocts tantalising teas and tisanes to suit any taste, at any time, to ease a range of ailments.
